Session Learning Outcomes

By the end of this session, the student should be able to:

- To enable students to understand the role of human beings in existence
- appreciate the importance of responsible human conduct for harmony and sustainable living.
- Students will be able to reflect on the role of human beings in existence

How to Engage with this Session (The Process)

- Whatever is said is a proposal — do not assume it to be true or false.
- Verify it on your own right, on the basis of your natural acceptance.
- It is a dialogue: first between you and the teacher, then within your own self — between what you are and what you really want to be.

Part A — Key Ideas (Recap)

- Why is right understanding important for human conduct?: Right understanding helps humans act responsibly, ensuring peace, prosperity, and harmony with existence.
- What is meant by human conduct?: Human conduct refers to the way a person lives and behaves in harmony with self, family, society, and nature.

Part B — In-Class Activity

Activity 1: Self-Exploration and Natural Acceptance for Session 7

Analyze the core proposal on the basis of natural acceptance and self-verification.

Core Proposal Aspect	Naturally Acceptable? (Yes/No)	Current Practice (Living with it?)
To enable students to understand the role of ...	Yes (Naturally Acceptable)	In Progress / Conscious Effort
appreciate the importance of responsible huma...	Yes (Naturally Acceptable)	Self-Observing Regularly

Personal Observation: When verifying To enable students to understand the role of human beings in through my natural acceptance, it leads to internal harmony, clarity of purpose, and unconditional fulfillment.

Living in alignment with this understanding eliminates internal contradictions and fosters mutual happiness in all dimensions of life.

Activity 2: Participation in the Order of Society and Nature

Identify concrete steps to translate understanding into conduct and relationship.

Dimension of Living	Commitment & Action Plan
Thought & Imagination	Ensure desires are guided by natural acceptance rather than pre-conditioning.
Behavior & Relationship	Express feelings of trust, respect, and affection unconditionally in daily interactions.
Work & Production	Engage in mutually enriching work with nature, ensuring conservation and sustainability.

Part C — Long-Answer Questions

Q1. Explain prosperity in the light of harmony between Self and Body.

Self-regulation means the feeling of responsibility toward the Body for its nurturing, protection and right utilisation. Health means the Body acts according to the Self and the parts of the Body are in harmony. The programme to ensure self-regulation and health gives priority to four areas: intake and routine, labour and exercise, posture and regulated breathing, and medicine and treatment. Intake includes air, water, sunlight, food and sensory inputs. Routine includes proper rising time, sleeping time and eating time. Labour produces physical facility, while exercise supports the health of the Body. Postures and regulated breathing help regulate the internal and external organs. Medicine and treatment are required when the Body temporarily moves away from harmony. This programme helps the Self take responsibility for the Body naturally, not through fear or force.

Q2. Why is right understanding important for human conduct?

Right understanding helps humans act responsibly, ensuring peace, prosperity, and harmony with existence.

Q3. What is meant by human conduct?

Human conduct refers to the way a person lives and behaves in harmony with self, family, society, and nature.
