Session Learning Outcomes

By the end of this session, the student should be able to:

- Students will be able to explain the concept of human conduct, analyze the factors influencing it
- evaluate its role in ensuring harmony at the individual, familial, and societal levels.
- Students will gain the ability to understand human conduct as a natural expression of right understanding

How to Engage with this Session (The Process)

- Whatever is said is a proposal — do not assume it to be true or false.
- Verify it on your own right, on the basis of your natural acceptance.
- It is a dialogue: first between you and the teacher, then within your own self — between what you are and what you really want to be.

Part A — Key Ideas (Recap)

- How is human conduct connected to harmony in society?: When individuals act with fairness, cooperation, and respect, it builds trust and harmony in families, workplaces, and communities.
- Give an example of responsible human conduct.: A student submitting original work instead of copying shows integrity and responsible conduct.

Part B — In-Class Activity

Activity 1: Self-Exploration and Natural Acceptance for Session 2

Analyze the core proposal on the basis of natural acceptance and self-verification.

Core Proposal Aspect	Naturally Acceptable? (Yes/No)	Current Practice (Living with it?)
Students will be able to explain the concept ...	Yes (Naturally Acceptable)	In Progress / Conscious Effort
evaluate its role in ensuring harmony at the ...	Yes (Naturally Acceptable)	Self-Observing Regularly

Personal Observation: When verifying Students will be able to explain the concept of human conduc through my natural acceptance, it leads to internal harmony, clarity of purpose, and unconditional fulfillment.

Living in alignment with this understanding eliminates internal contradictions and fosters mutual happiness in all dimensions of life.

Activity 2: Participation in the Order of Society and Nature

Identify concrete steps to translate understanding into conduct and relationship.

Dimension of Living	Commitment & Action Plan
Thought & Imagination	Ensure desires are guided by natural acceptance rather than pre-conditioning.
Behavior & Relationship	Express feelings of trust, respect, and affection unconditionally in daily interactions.
Work & Production	Engage in mutually enriching work with nature, ensuring conservation and sustainability.

Part C — Long-Answer Questions

Q1. Explain the definitiveness of ethical human conduct.

Ethical human conduct is definite because it is based on right understanding, natural acceptance and harmony at all levels. It is not dependent on time, place, person or situation. When a human being understands harmony in the Self, harmony with the Body, harmony in family, harmony in society and harmony with nature, the conduct becomes definite. Ethical conduct can be understood through values, policy and character. Values tell us what to do and what not to do as a human being. Policy gives the plan for how to live with those values. Character is the expression of those values in behaviour, work and participation. Therefore, ethical human conduct is self-satisfying, people-friendly and eco-friendly.

Q2. How is human conduct connected to harmony in society?

When individuals act with fairness, cooperation, and respect, it builds trust and harmony in families, workplaces, and communities.

Q3. Give an example of responsible human conduct.

A student submitting original work instead of copying shows integrity and responsible conduct.
