Session Learning Outcomes

By the end of this session, the student should be able to:

- Students will be able to understand the holistic way of living by integrating realization, thought, behavior, and work
- recognize how All-encompassing Resolution fosters harmony at all levels—from the individual self to society, nature, and the entire existence.
- Students will be able to relate the importance of All-encompassing Resolution in human life, analyze its application across realization, thought, behavior, and work

How to Engage with this Session (The Process)

- Whatever is said is a proposal — do not assume it to be true or false.
- Verify it on your own right, on the basis of your natural acceptance.
- It is a dialogue: first between you and the teacher, then within your own self — between what you are and what you really want to be.

Part A — Key Ideas (Recap)

- How does thought contribute to holistic living?: Thought involves analyzing, understanding, and aligning ideas with the values of harmony and sustainability.
- What does realization mean in this context?: Realization is the awakening of the self to the reality of co-existence and harmony in existence.

Part B — In-Class Activity

Activity 1: Self-Exploration and Natural Acceptance for Session 7

Analyze the core proposal on the basis of natural acceptance and self-verification.

Core Proposal Aspect	Naturally Acceptable? (Yes/No)	Current Practice (Living with it?)
Students will be able to understand the holis...	Yes (Naturally Acceptable)	In Progress / Conscious Effort
recognize how All-encompassing Resolution fos...	Yes (Naturally Acceptable)	Self-Observing Regularly

Personal Observation: When verifying Students will be able to understand the holistic way of livi through my natural acceptance, it leads to internal harmony, clarity of purpose, and unconditional fulfillment.

Living in alignment with this understanding eliminates internal contradictions and fosters mutual happiness in all dimensions of life.

Activity 2: Participation in the Order of Society and Nature

Identify concrete steps to translate understanding into conduct and relationship.

Dimension of Living	Commitment & Action Plan
Thought & Imagination	Ensure desires are guided by natural acceptance rather than pre-conditioning.
Behavior & Relationship	Express feelings of trust, respect, and affection unconditionally in daily interactions.
Work & Production	Engage in mutually enriching work with nature, ensuring conservation and sustainability.

Part C — Long-Answer Questions

Q1. What is the main purpose of Practice Session 13 on ethical human conduct?

The main purpose of Practice Session 13 is to help students explore ethical human conduct through real-life situations. Ethical conduct is not only about following rules, codes or punishments. It is based on right understanding, natural acceptance and the ability to see what is mutually fulfilling. In this practice session, students can examine situations where there is an ethical dilemma and identify whether their decision is based on preconditioning, fear, reward, punishment or right understanding. The session helps students see that ethical conduct is definite, self-satisfying, people-friendly and eco-friendly. It also helps them understand that ethical competence must be developed within the individual through self-exploration.

Q2. How does thought contribute to holistic living?

Thought involves analyzing, understanding, and aligning ideas with the values of harmony and sustainability.

Q3. What does realization mean in this context?

Realization is the awakening of the self to the reality of co-existence and harmony in existence.
